FINAL ORDER

This case against Rob Smith, who held the office of Sheriff of Coffee County at the time of the allegations at issue, was set for an Administrative Procedures Act hearing on June 17, 2005. Based on a pending criminal investigation on the same facts and circumstances at issue in this case, this case was continued until the resolution of the criminal investigation and resulting trial. On August 18, 2006, the Attorney General's Office filed a motion to dismiss this case stating that, on March 29, 2006, Mr. Smith pled guilty before the Superior Court of Coffee County to Malpractice and Malfeasance in Office. The case against Rob Smith is hereby dismissed.

SO ORDERED this 24 of August, 2006.
